The Rancher's Seduction by Catherine Mann 6th book from the Alaskan Oil Baron series. Best if read within the series because of the overall arc but can be read as a standalone romance if you don't worry too much about outside connections or backstory. It's that point in the series where things are starting to reveal and wrap up.

Trish Milburn is one of my all time favorite authors. There's just something about her writing that I love. I can usually sit down, and read one of her books in a couple of hours because I get so sucked into the world of Blue Falls, Texas. A Rancher to Love is no exception to that rule. I loved everything about the book.
