Fever Season Eric Zweig

Fever Season offers a vivid look at hockey in 1919 French Canada, complete with fast-pace descriptions of games. The characters are engaging and likeable -- David in particular is a wonderful protagonist, and I loved the juxtaposition of sewing and hockey for his character. The book is packed with information about WWI, the Spanish Flu, and, of course, jockey in Canada, showing how ...

by Eric Zweig. Write a review . How does Amazon calculate star ratings? ... The reason I picked up Fever Season was because it was set on Canada. I don't know anything about Canadian history (I didn't even know about the fever), so I thought this book would help. Even though it was probably a bit too juvenile for me, I still enjoyed learning about 20th century Canada and what orphans had to go ...
