When building a smokehouse you should use brick bbq smoker plans. It is necessary to start with the foundation. Then you can start laying the first row of bricks without the fastening mixture. To make a binding mixture you should take sand, cement and hydrated lime in the ratio of 3 to 1 to 1. Building a brazier means installation of metal corners between the walls. The firebox is made of thick-walled metal and there are special holes for air in it. The first 8 rows from the ...
